SOCIAL MEDIA

It's a great way to stay connected

The G&P group social media pages were established to assist those in need of our services.

Through social media, you can message us, and we will do our best to assist you or direct you to a specialist at one of the companies within the Group.

We love connecting. Like one of our posts, leave a message or share our content.

NEWS & EVENTS

Now you can access all our newsletters, event announcements, articles and other publications in one location.

The G&P Group has been growing and changing in response to the COVID-19 pandemic and the changing face of the TCI economy, and we want to share our news with you.

We will be publishing regular newsletters to keep you updated on new people, activities, events, services and much more at our offices. The team at the G&P Group will also be producing various articles and publications to ensure you remain aware of key pieces of new legislation and regulation.

Although COVID-19 has disrupted many of our event plans, we are planning a number of virtual events soon. Please let us know if you'd like us to cover any specific area.

We are totally committed to staying connected with you and look forward to supporting you in any way that we can.
